ARMY ROTC

SFA Army ROTC (Reserve Officer Training Corps) is one of the best leadership courses in the country that your student can be a part of in their college curriculum. During classes and field training, cadets learn firsthand what it takes to lead others, motivate groups and accomplish missions as an officer in the Army. Upon graduation from SFA Army ROTC, cadets are commissioned to the rank of Second Lieutenants in the United States Army.

Here's what SFA Army ROTC offers:

- Career paths in one of 17 different fields
- The best leadership training available
- Opportunities for any academic level, to include Graduate students
- Starting Annual Salary for a new 2nd Lieutenant (2018 pay scale) - $57, 284
- You can serve full time in the Active Army, or part time in the National Guard or Army Reserve

ROTC Scholarship Incentives for cadets:

- $10,000/yr scholarship or Room and Board
- $1,200 for books each year
- $420 stipend per month during each semester

ROTC Facts for Prospective Students:

- No obligation to the Army unless contracted
- 3 elective credits per semester
- Professional program; this isn't Basic Training
